The main guitar tab consists of a single staff with six lines. The top line is labeled 'T' (Treble Clef), the middle line 'A' (Alto Clef), and the bottom line 'B' (Bass Clef). The notation includes:

- Measure 1: A whole note chord with a flat sign on the bottom line. Fret numbers 9, 10, 9, and 9 are written above the staff, with a slur connecting them.
- Measure 2: A whole note chord with a flat sign on the bottom line. Fret numbers 9, 9, 11, and 11 are written above the staff, with a slur connecting them.
- Measure 3: A whole note chord with a flat sign on the bottom line. Fret numbers 12, 11, and 11 are written above the staff, with a slur connecting them.
- Measure 4: A whole note chord with a flat sign on the bottom line. Fret numbers 12, 14, and 12 are written above the staff, with a slur connecting them and an 's' above the first '12' indicating a sustain pedal.

Below the staff, there are four vertical bar lines. Underneath these bar lines are four rectangular boxes representing a sustain pedal: the first and fourth boxes are filled, while the second and third are empty.
